Hi,

Thanks for contacting us. It looks like we couldn't confirm your identity from what you sent. To help you with your account, we'll need you to send a photo or scan of something from our ID list that confirms your identity:

<https://www.facebook.com/help/159096464162185/?ref=CR>

You can help us confirm your identity in one of two ways:

- Send a photo or scan of one item from group one like a drivers license, passport or official name change paperwork or

- Send a photo or scan of two different items from group two like a magazine subscription and a school ID or a bank statement and a membership ID

There are also a few things you can try to get back into your account on your own:

- Log in from a computer or phone you've used to log into Facebook before.
- Turn off private browsing or incognito mode in your browser.
- Request a new login approval code. To learn how to do this, please visit the Help Center:

<https://www.facebook.com/help/132694786861712/?ref=cr>

We hope to hear from you soon so we can help you get back into your account.

Best,

Crizza Myer
